vers

The image displays two vertical musical staves. The left staff is labeled 'refrein' and the right staff is labeled 'vers'. Both staves contain musical notation with notes, rests, and accidentals. The notation is written in a vertical orientation, with the staff lines running vertically and the notes placed horizontally. The 'refrein' staff has a large 'A' symbol at the top right. The 'vers' staff has a large 'V' symbol at the top right. Both staves have a dashed vertical line running through the middle. The notation includes various note values, rests, and accidentals, indicating a complex musical structure.
