The image shows a Klavarskribo notation for Psalm 51, melody in alt. It consists of four systems of staves. Each system has a vertical line on the left with a number (1, 2, or 1) indicating the staff to be played. The staves are connected by horizontal lines. The notation includes various symbols: circles with dots, circles with horizontal lines, and circles with vertical lines. There are also some symbols that look like 'P' and 'V'. The notation is written in a way that is easy to read and play.
