

Psalm 110

Zetting: Henk Lemckert

The image displays two vertical musical staves, each containing 12 horizontal lines. The notation is a form of musical shorthand, likely for a keyboard instrument. It consists of various symbols including open circles, solid black dots, and stems, arranged across the lines. A vertical dashed line runs through the center of each staff, serving as a reference point. The left staff is marked with a large 'A' at the top right. At the bottom of the left staff, there are two sets of rhythmic markings: 'W V V V' and 'V V V V'. The right staff has a thick horizontal line at its base. The overall layout is clean and minimalist, focusing on the placement of notes and stems relative to the staff lines.
