Zetting: Henk Lemckert

The image displays two vertical musical staves, each with 12 lines. The left staff is labeled with numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, and 1 on its left side, indicating fingerings. The right staff has a thick black bar at its base. Both staves contain musical notation consisting of notes (filled and open circles) and stems, with some notes circled. Vertical dashed lines are present in both staves, and various symbols like commas and checkmarks are used to denote specific musical instructions.
